An Inspiration for serious thought

The Foreword

Teachers, Students, Alumni, Parents and Friends!

May this Year Book serve as a partial record of events of the 1925-26 school year. Twenty-five years have passed since the first year book was published by students of our high school, and we sincerely hope that this volume will compare favorably with previous publications. The preparation of every section of this book has been prompted by a spirit of loyalty and good will. Insinuations of a personal or malicious nature have been avoided. We hope that you will enjoy this little volume.

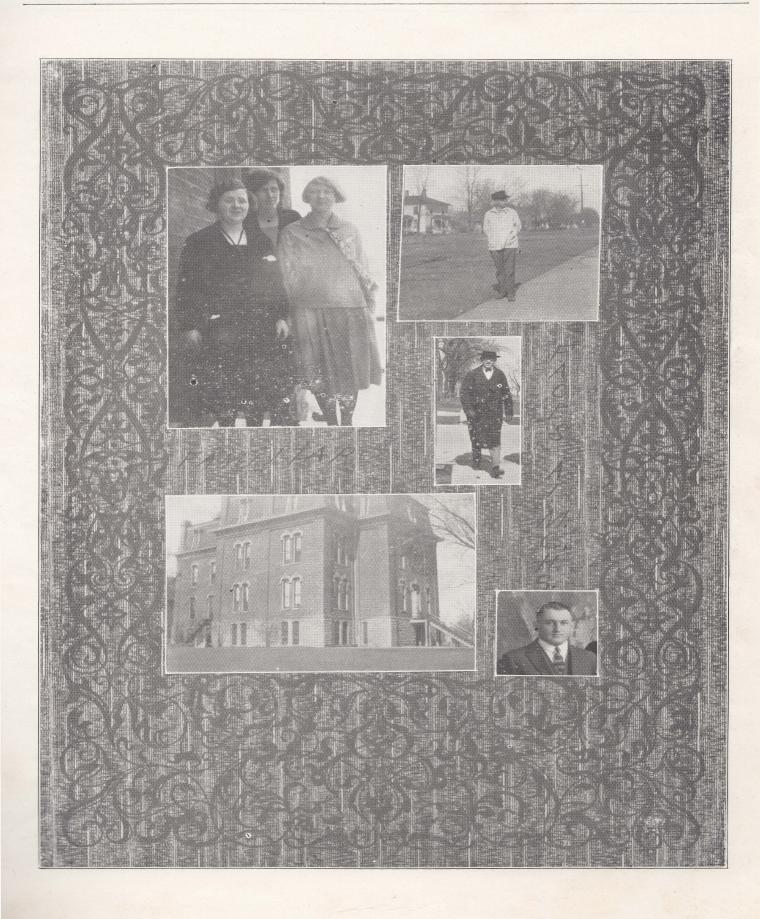

The Monesse 1926 Staff.

I hope to be on the Board so as to keep in touch with high school a little longer—Lloyd Eilers

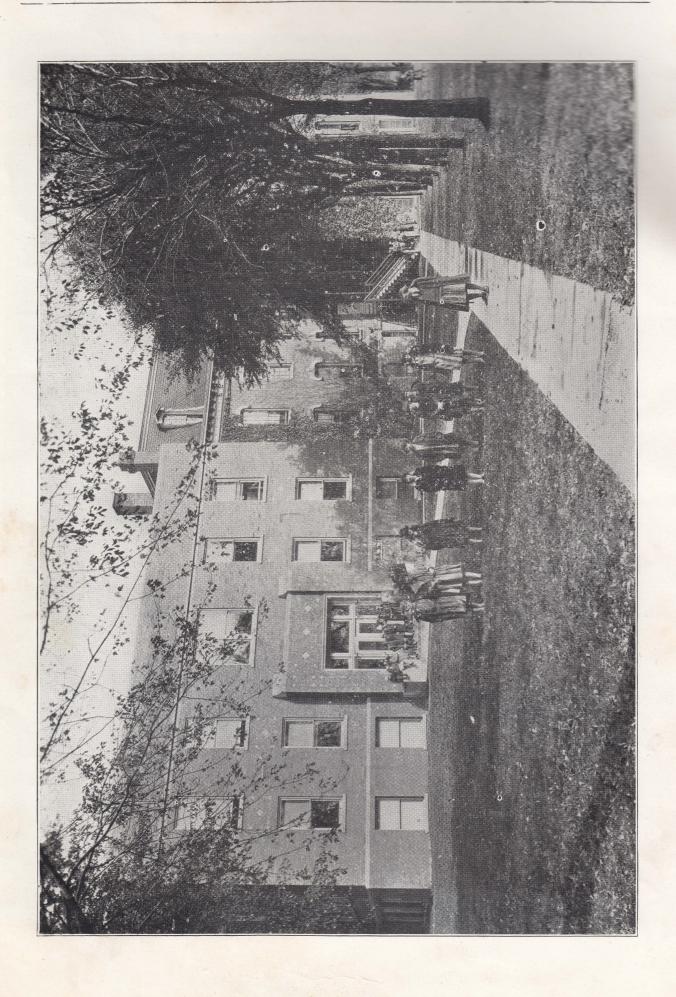

This indeed explains it all.

The Faculty

One day while reclining in an easy chair I amused myself conjuring pictures in air. I saw the future—a few years hence, Around me circled the teachers of old Momence. With idle fancy I fell asleep And dreamed a dream peculiarly deep. A white ship dropped anchor near Swiftly in my dream self without fear I walked the deck of this white ship. 'Destiny,' I heard an unseen lip Call out her name. 'Destiny,' that wonder ship of fame. But what of her passengers and crew Of whom there seemed to be so few? As I sauntered along the sparkling deck, Looking here, searching there, craning my neck, I came at last to a man at the wheel; I advanced a step closer and began to feel That I had known this man before. And just as I moved from my place So as to see plainer his face, He shouted, 'What' This!!!' in my ear. With that shout, vanished all doubt. My Memory became instantly clear, Intuition and experience said, 'Mr. Munson is near." About this time fragrant odors my nostrils assailed My stomach its hollowness loudly bewailed. Upon an open door at my left or north would be better Was printed the word, "GALLEY," in large golden letters, I put my head through the opening, what a sight met my eyes. There stood Miss Coontz baking cornbread and pies. Recovering somewhat I explored some more Until I discovered another door. Half afraid, half in awe I looked into this cavernous maw. Lo and Behold!! At a desk I had seen before Stood Miss Hardy teaching English II, III and IV. Reconciled now as to the feebleness of my mind I was about to walk on and find what I could find. When my attention was arrested by shouts and laughter near I whirled around, my eyes belching fear. Down the deck came a group of girls. Miss Palmer in the lead Chattering and laughing having a great time indeed. They were taking a ten mile hike you see. But having no land must take it at sea. Excited no more by the sights that I saw I will of each for you a clear picture draw. In the first to which I came surrounded by globes, telescopes and flowers Stood Mr. Hungerford teaching a science class the meaning of magnetic powers

Next was a room from which music issued forth, In it was Miss Brown winding a victrola for all she was worth; This was a class in musical history Although to students who took it, it was always a mystery. In the next, in which a class learned bookkeeping tricks Miss Mauritzson was patiently explaining that two and two make four, not six. In the room next to it came the clash, bang, bang of typewriters in action Telling of the efforts of students to clip their records a fraction. From here we go to the bottom of the ship The part to go under first should the ship tip. Here fitted out in aquarium style That is, fishes in tanks and some dead a while, Here in front of him samples in dishes Stood Mr. Moore talking on the nutrition of fishes. This then was what had been the Ag. room of yore, But who would recognize it as such any more? And now directly across from this room Comes the sound of saws and hammers making an awful boom. Upon looking into this room we are surprised to see In place of Mr. Liberty stands Mr. Lee. With a frown on his face He is sandpapering a certain place On a table with care As though someone had been and gone but left his mark there. Looking around us we see a troop of boys in sailor suits dressed Going through drills made to expand their chests. Standing on one side with an authorative air Is Mr. Liberty, criticising here, encouraging there. No sooner had these marched off leaving me alone When I was attracted by a jabbering in some tongue unknown. Entering the room from whence came these sounds My eyes met a sight with reason out of bounds, Miss Stone and a language class were exercises doing While from her mouth a strange jargon was ensuing. Leaving this room for one more inviting We come to one in which a woman is wring And drawing geometrical polyhedrons on the board, As she suddenly faces us we feel like one stabbed by a sword For there stands the Miss Britton whom we knew Convincing a mathematics class that x equals 2. Suddenly I felt myself falling through space, Fear gripped my soul, sweat formed on my face. Abruptly with a loud bump, bump, I awoke from my sleep To find myself lying on the floor in a heap.—Charles Krueger.

MARCEL HALL, Captain

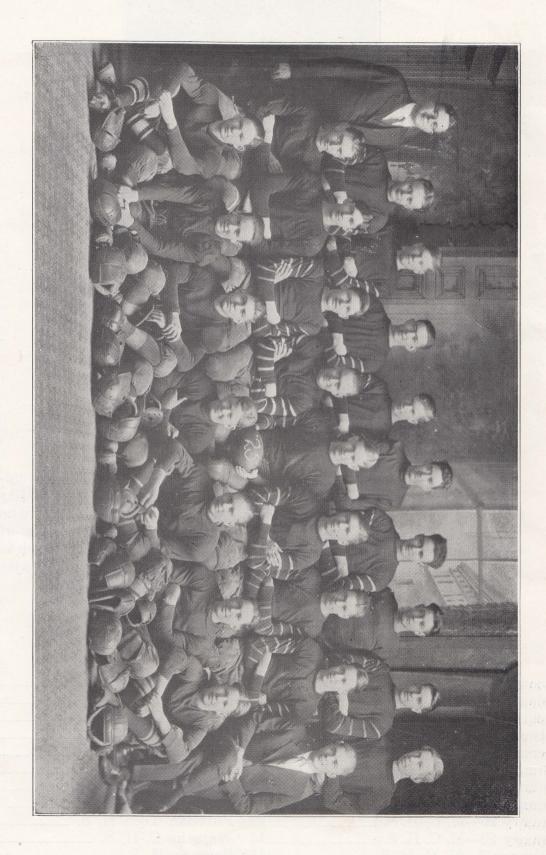

In Captain Marcell Hall, Momence had one of the best backs in the state. For his excellent work, the Chicago Journal gave him an honorable mention on it's "All State Team." A wonderful ball toter and one of the best passers in in the state. A good sport and a real leader. He has held down the left half berth on the "Cherry and White" teams during the past two years. Yes, he leaves us in June. We are going to miss him for we realize that his place can never be filled.

MARCEL HALL, Captain

Captain Marcell Hall, a great leader on the gridiron, was equally as great in basketball. He is a player who has all the ability in the world coupled with determination. He is a player who doesn't know what it is to give up. He is undoubtedly, one of the best athletes that ever represented M. C. H. S. We regret to say that he will not be with us next year because he graduates in June.

THE SECOND BASKETBALL SQUAD

"Fred Jensen, Frank Shrontz and Lyeth Tabler and prospective athlete."

Coach Marcus L. Moore

Coach Marcus L. Moore is now completing his first year of coaching in the Momence Community High School. Although it has been his first year of coaching at our school, he has demonstrated his ability as a coach and won the confidence of all the boys. Mr. Moore is agraduate of Grinell College, Grinell, Iowa, and has taken several courses in the Coaching School at the University of Illinois. He was football, basketball and track coach at Seymour, Iowa High School during a period of two years before coming to Momence. We are indebted to Mr. Moore for the splendid work which our football and basketball teams have been doing during the present school year.

Momence Community High School Girls Athletic Association

Several high school girls under the direction of Miss Palmer and Miss Mauritzson organized an Association. The aims and ideals of this association are well stated in the outline given below. Reald it. It is as follows:

Year Book Banquet

One hundred eighty-six teacher and students of the Momence Community High School sat down to the Annual Year Book Banquet at the Woodman Hall on Tuesday evening, February 23, 1926. The banquet was nicely served by the Woman's Relief Corps and the three course menu consisted of nuts, fruit cocktail, cream chicken, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, rolls, olives. Washington pie and coffee. The tables were tastefully decorated with red streamers and bouquets of red and white carnations, red and white being the high school colors. The programs which served also as place cards were novel in design and had been prepared by Miss Margaret Irwin and Miss Irene Hardy. The Year Book Banquet is one of the traditional social events for the high school students and is possibly enjoyed more than anything else during the entire school year.

After the banquet Mr. Lee led in community singing, and Ethel and Lester Kramer rendered some popular musical selections. Anthony Mazur, a member of the Senior Class, proved a very witty toastmaster and humorous responses were made the following:

Delorah, Godess of Victory	Richard Baker
Richard, the Lion Hearted	Delorah Storer
The Monesse '26	Bernice Gibson
The North Seats	Rolland Truitt
The Divided Class	Milten Sherwood
The Cradle Roll	Homer Truitt
The kindergarten	Ross Park
The Spirit of '25-'26	Marcell Hall
The Spirit of '25-'26 The Faculty, a Collective Group
The Village to the North	Armen Blanke
Arkansas, the Wonder Land
What the Girls Accomplish	Orpha Park
My Army Ancestor	Mr. Lee
Storer, My Good Man Friday	Mr. Hungerford
A Descent From Above	Mr. Liberty

The Changing World
Being Above the Rest	Miss Stone
Is Every Balance a Trial	Miss Hardy
Music and!!	Miss Britton
The Last Introduction	Raymond Mullady
The Last Response	Mr. Munson

The teachers and students feel that the banquet was one of the best in the history of the school. The banquet adjourned after singing "We're loyal to you, Momence High."

"I put charm into the music of this band,"—Oscar Everhart

Basketball and Football Banquet

The members of the basketball and football squads of M. C. H. S. were given a supper by the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening, February 24. The banquet was served in the Guild Rooms by the women of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Munson, President of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a short talk and introduced "Tug" Wilson, director of athletics at Northwestern University. Mr. Wilson responded and talked on the subject, "Athletics in Schools and Colleges." Coach Moore spoke on what had been accomplished in athletics in the local school. Phil Howard of Chicago Heights gave a talk and paid a high compliment to the boys on the teams. Marcell Hall, captain of the basketball and football squads, was called upon and he responded in a very creditable manner.

Duck Supper

Miss Coontz entertained the football squad at a duck supper, October 25, 1925, at the St. Patrick's Church Hall. The supper consisted of duck and everything else that goes with it to help make it good. (At least the boys thought so.) Virgil Denton and Gook Hart were in very poor circumstances as both had the misfortune to have their collar bones broken. Both of them made out fairly well, especially Gook, as Floyd Storer sat beside hime and assisted him in eating his supper.

But overlooking these unfortunate facts, the boys departed each saying that Miss Coontz was the best ever.

Senior Party

Yes! The Seniors had a party. It was given at Park's restaurant March 29, at 7:30 o'clock. (In the evening—not morning.) The chaperons present were Miss Hardy, Mr. Hungerford, Miss Palmer and Miss Stone. The main diversion of the evening was playing progressive "Bunco" but many other games were also played which everyone seemed to enjoy. The refreshments that were served were as follows: sandwiches, pickles and coffee. All departed at a late hour, each reporting a good time.

CLASSICAL QUOTATIONS

"A cat is a fur coat in a primary state."

"I know my eggs," said the hen as she scratched the China egg out of her nest.

"Our idea of the height of optimism is a ninety year old gent buying a new suit with two pair of pants."

"It is said that Luther Burbank is trying to cross an egg plant with a milkweed so as to have a custard plant for pies."

"A man's first attempt to hold a girl on his knees might be called a trial balance."

"If a popular high school girl had three gentleman friends named respectively William, William and William, could it be said she had the Willies?"

"The tightest man in the world is the Jew who shot off a pistol outside his house on Christmas Eve and then went in and told the children that Santa Claus had committed suicide."

"The racket was too much for me," said the tennis ball as it hit the net on the re-bound.

"What's the use of speaking correct English? No one would understand you."

"The man who hanged himself died of his own free will and accord."

"We know a man so stingy that he talks through his nose to save his false teeth."

* * * *

Homer Truitt:—"My Pa is very religious, he always bows his head and says something before the meals."

Dick Baker:—"Mine always says something when he sits down to eat, but he doesn't bow his head."

Homer Truitt:--"What does he say?"

Dick Baker:—"Go easy on the butter, kids, it's fifty cents a pound."

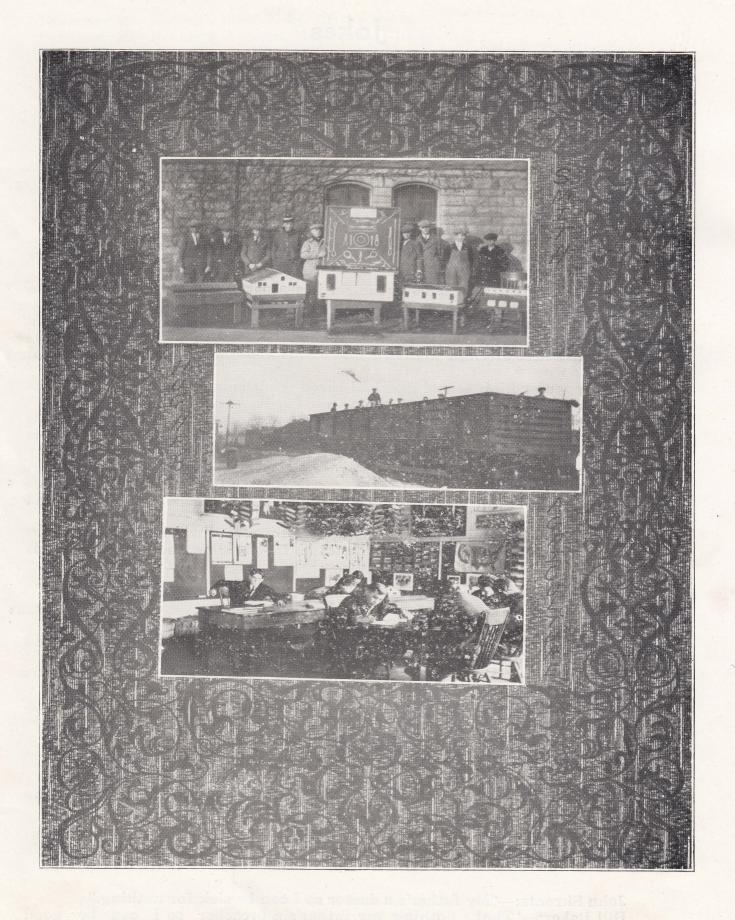

* * * *

Miss Palmer:—"Hey, there, Anna, what makes you keep singing in the bathtub?"

Miss Mauritzson:—"The door won't lock."

* * * *

John Shronts:—"My father's a doctor so I can be sick for nothing."
Bill Baker:—"That's nothing, my father's a preacher so I can be good for nothing."

Too many of the "great open spaces" are under hats.

Mrs. Searls:—"See here, Harriet, I found a button in the salad." Harriet:—"Yes, that's off the dressing."

Joseph C .: "I had a friend who suffers terribly from the heat."

Robert B.:—"Why, where does he live?"

Joseph C .: - "He isn't living."

Blanche Myers in Zoology Class:—"White sheep eat more than black sheep" George Flagler:—"Why?"

Blanche Myers:—"There's more of them."

Elmer Gilbert:—"When I was a small boy you know the doctor said if I didn't stop smoking cigarettes I would become feeble minded."

Otto Bloomquist:—"Well, why didn't you stop?"

Mr. Hardy:--"How were you in athletics son?"

Reginald:--"I was good in relay events, dad."

Mr. Hardy:--"That's what I understand. Well you can just re-lay all the carpets your Ma took up last spring."

Miss Coontz:--"Clifford, why did you put quotation marks around your examination?"

Clifford Baechler:—"I was quoting the man in front of me."

Mr. Moore:—"Define trickle."

Fred Ruggles:--"to run slowly."

Mr. Moore.--"Define antecdote."

Fred Ruggles:—"A short funny tale."

Mr. Moore: -- "Use both in a sentence."

Fred Ruggles:—"The dog trickled down the street with a can tied to his antecdote."

John Lively:—"What would you do if you saw a lady washing out from shore?"

Gilbert Hamann:—"I'd throw her a piece of soap,"

Miss Coontz:- "Use the word fascinate in a sentence."

Virgil Denton:--"One day mamma put on her dress and she fastened nine but the next she could only fascinate."

Miss Palmer:—"John, you mustn't laugh out loud in the school roof"
John Cole:—"I didn't mean to do it. I was smiling and the smile busted."

AFTER THE YFAR BOOK BANQUET

Ralph Gray:—"How is your blonde?"

Tony Mazur:--"Oh, She's all right only a little light headed."

Bishir:—"I've got a basketball nose."

Cleta Deehring:--"How come?"

Bishir:-"It dribbles."

Merlin Felt:—"Would you accept a pet monkey?"

Pauline Porter:--"Oh, I would have to write to father. This is so sudden."

"Did you get the bridle on?"

"Yes."

"How did you do it?"

"Waited 'til he yawned."

Miss Palmer:—"What's the other right of man beside living?" Marcell Hall:—"Death."

Mr. Munson—"Why is it that you are always working when I come in the class room?"

Gook Hart--"I can hear you coming."

Charles Krueger:—"Why, I get twice as much sleep as you do." Elmer Gilbert:—"You ought to. You have twice as many classes."

Walter Vining:—"Do you serve fish here?"
Waiter:—"Certainly, sir; we cater to everyone."

Bernice Martin:—"Your eyes look tired."
Harriet Searls:—"Yes, I've been reading 'Three Weeks.'"

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

I go to every football game And rave and yell and shout, Although I must admit I don't Know what it's all about.

IN MEMORIAM

Senior—Long lessons, no bed Brain favere, he's dead.

Junior—Love smitten, hope fled, Heart broken, he's dead.

Sophomore—Conceited, swelled head, Bust cranium, he's dead.

Freshman:—Milk famine, not fed, Starvation, he's dead.

Are they all dead yet?
Are they all dead yet?
No! No! Just the faculty's left yet.

Marjorie Gibson:—"Why is Myrtle weeping on Tony's shoulder? Does she love him?"

Margaret Irwin:—"No, probably he has bored her to tears."

Crimes committed by Gladys Hardesty:—Killed time, stole a pony, shot admiring glances and murdered his Caesar.

Thomas Kelson:—"May, do you know Miss Coontz likes me?" Otto Bloomquist:—"How do you know?" Thomas Kelson:—"Why, she put me right in front of her desk."

IN PARK'S RESTAURANT

Miss Stone:—"What's the matter with this office?" it looks like mud. Ross Park:—"Yes, ma'm. It was ground yesterday."

Miss Mauritzson:—"I would like to see a good joke."

Miss Brown:—"Wait until I call Raymond Mullady or one of the teachers"

"Can fish smell?" asks Mr. Lee. Doris Gibson:—"Yes, after they have been dead a while."

Bernice Gibson:—"How kind of you to bring me these lovely flowers. They are so beautiful and fresh. I believe there is some "dew" on them yet."

George Kaylor (embarrassed):—"Yes, but I am going to pay it off tomorrow."

Arnold Sherwood:—"May I dance this one?"
Dorothy Chipman:—"Certainly, but not with me."

Miss Brown:—"I punish you because I love you."
Floyd Storer:—"I wish I was big enough to return your love."

Helen Cole:—"It's very nice of you to ask me to dance."
Oscar Everhart:—"Don't mention it. It's a Charity Ball."

"Heads outside, nothing inside."

(Dr. Edgar Jensen, M. D. of the class of 1915, is now serving his interneship at Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii. Dr. Jensen sent us the advertisement which is printed below. The advertisement was inserted in one of the American newspapers in Honolulu by a Japanese merchant. Read it if you can. It is a new form of amusement.—Editor's note.)

O Glad for Chrismas Kimono!

ONNOUNCE OUT OF

Musa-shiya, The Shirtmaker

(Also kimono make & Dry Good sell)

All For Givings Kimono best kind

If it was a men I make her also. I make Japanese style man kimono haole style man kimono, lady kimono any kind. I had much smart for long time make. That was why I speak this time.

Sappose desired for clothe make on yourself this one kimono, dress, underwears, anything, you are very happy my shop for Japanese kind inside my back rooms only places it is kinsha (simirarly creep de shin) chirimen yuzen, mosorin yuzen, meisen etc and etc. My back room best place.

HOW FINDING IT

If you became my shop please King Street until little more River. Fish Market do not paused. If some other kind stores pay no attentions. My shop Namber 179 sign say so Musa-shiya the Shirtmaker between this place. Please pass away inside for kimono, shirt, etc and etc. Goodbye.

It was raining terribly. The playing field was a sea of mud. The players came up out of every scrimmage like pulling a Ford out of a mudhole. Everything was a mess. The football jerseys had lost their brill ant hues and the white pants of the officials were a dark gray shade.

Janet Wimmer:—"Isn't it terrible that they should get so dirty? Look at that fellow's shirt. How will they ever get them clean?"

Frances Turner:- "Say, what do you suppose they got the scrub team for?

"A goat is about as big as a sheep if the sheep is big enough. A female goat is called a buttress, a little goat is called a goatee. Goats are very useful for eating up things. A goat will eat up more things than any animal that ain't a goat. My father got a goat once. My father is an awful good man. Everything he says is so, even if it ain't so. This is all I know about goats." (This composition was prepared by Frank Shronts in English I.)

THERE ARE OTHERS

Clifford Baechler drives to school every morning in a much didapidated machine.

"What kind of a car you got there, Clifford?"

"R. F. D." was the answer.

"R. F. D.—what the heck?"

"Yip. Rescued from the dump."

A few days after a farmer had put his two children in school a book agent called on him and said: "Now that your children go to school you ought to buy them an encyclopedia."

"Buy them an encyclopedia? Hanged if I do." was the reply. "Let 'em walk like I did."

A MATTER OF SPELLING

Miss Coontz was instructing her Sophomore class in the use of antonyms. "Now, students," she said, "What is the opposite of sorrow?"

"Joy," shrieked the class in unison.

"What is the opposite of pleasure?"

"Pains,"

"And what is the opposite of woe?"

"Giddap," blurted Armond Soucie.

Railroad Conductor: "How old are you, my little girl?"

Florence Chandler: "If the corporation doesn't object, I'd prefer to pay full fare and keep my own statistics."

VERY LIKELY

Miss Palmer: "What did Hero say to Leander after he had swam the Hellespoint?"

Maud Shronts: "Why, you're all wet!"

Joseph Camp: "What do you do to live?" Raymond Mullady: "Breathe!"

"A JOKE! READ IT"

A great amount of excitement throughout the whole school was caused by the Freshies' party. The Freshies were all excited because it was the first party of the season. It was held on Wednesday evening, April 7, 1926, at Park's Restaurant. All little people like games and so they were not disappointed when "Bunco" was suggested and was the main game of the evening. The lunch consisted of soft boiled eggs, crackers and milk. The class sponsors were Mr. Munson and Mr. Lee. All the Freshies present reported a very delightful time and returned home at a reasonable hour.

JUNIOR PARTY

There was a small amount of confusion. Where? at M. C. H. S.. When? Friday evening, April 9, 1926. Created by whom? The Junior Class. Cause? A class party. What were the incidents leading up to the event? More confusion and preparations. The Juniors met at Philo Hall at 7:30 o'clock all ready for a good time. The evening was spent dancing and playing games although there were only nineteen present. The chaperons for the evening were Miss Stone Miss Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Liberty. The lunch consisted of two varieties of cake, fruit salad with whipped cream and cocoa. Result? All reported a fine time and departed at an early hour.

THE SOPHOMORE BLOWOUT

The Sophomores had a party. It was a regular party, the like of which was never heard of before due to Raymond Mullady's genius as chairman of the entertainment committee. Such games as "winkum sly," "cross questions and crooked answers," "I see you," and others were indulged in by all. The girls occupied the north part of Philo Hall and the boys the south part. A delicious lunch of date bread sandwiches, saralee sandwiches and cocoa with nice, big, white marshmallows was served.
